Listening while reading will
• bring the story to life and familiarise learners with regional accents
• encourage unwilling or reluctant readers
• improve your students’ understanding and fluency
• increase learners’ reading speed and comprehension
• motivate students to become independent readers

“Penguin Readers audio CDs are invaluable in improving reading fluency. The controlled vocabulary and grammar offer students enjoyable books at the appropriate reading level, while the audio CD familiarizes students with pronunciation, intonation and the speed at which the book should be read. Together, the book and audio CD promote efficient and motivating reading.”
